How Territorial Affects Them.

Homesteads Open Only to American Citizens--Some Other Modifications.

The Advertiser published yesterday a brief resume of the opinion of Attoracy General Doie relative to the effect upon the Land Act of 1895 of the Territorial Act, and of the extension of the constitution and laws of the United States to these Islands. So much interest has been manifested in the matter that the Advertiser herewith gives the opinion in full:

To His Excellency, Sanford B. Dole, Governor of the Territory of Hawai. sir-In compliance with your request, I have the nonor to submit the following opinion relative to the effect upon the Land Act of 1895 of the Territoria. Act, and of the extension of the consitution and laws of the United States to these Islands.

Section 190 of the Land Act, as embodied in the Civil Laws of 1897, is expressly repealed by Section 7 of the Territorial Act. As this section relates only to the appointing power in certain cases, it does not substantially affect the Land Act as a whole. No other section of the Land Act is express y repealed. The Land Act of 1895 was intended to promote the acquisition of homesteads by people of smail means First, by inalienable and unattachable "Homestead Leases" for the term of nine hundred and ninety-nine years Second, by "Right of Purchas: Leases," such leases running for the term of twenty years, with conditiona. rights of purchase at the expiration of

I am of the opinion that the provision of the Land Act relative to "Homethe Ewa Pantation Co., will stead Leases and "Right of Purchas. Leases" are repealed by implication. being inconsistent with Section 73 of the Territorial Act, which declares, among other things, that "no lease of agricultural land shall be granted, sold r renewed by the Government of th-Territory of Hawaii for a longer period than five years until Congress shall otherwise direct."

Third, by Cash Freeholds." The der the system known as "Cash Freeholds" does not, in my opinion, conflict with the above quoted provision of th Territorial Act relative to Territorial eases; and the first sentence of Section 3 of the Territorial Act provides: "That the laws of Hawaii relating to public lands, the settlement of bounlaries and the issuance of patents on and commission awards, except as changed by this Act, shall continue in force until Congress shall otherwise provide."

SOME RESTRICTIONS. I think, however, that the privilege of acquiring such freehold is materially restricted by the third sentence of Section 73 of the Territorial Act, which declares that-"In said laws "land patent" shall be substituted for 'royal patent;" missioner of public lands" for "minister of the interior;" "agent of public

RIGHTS OF ALIENS.

Sald Chapter declares: That no alien or person who is not a citizen of the United States, or who has not declared his intention to become as hereinafter provided: Provided, that the prohibition of this section shan not apply to cases in which the right to States is secured by existing treatles been intimate with his wife. He was to citizens or subjects of foreign counries, which rights, so far as they may xist by force of any such treaty, shall any alien who shall become a bona fine resident of the United States, and any a ien who shall become a bona fide resident of the United States or shall have declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States in the manner provided by law, shall have the right to acquire and hold land in either of the Territories of the United States upon the same terms as citizens of the United States.... This Act shall not be construed to prevent any persons, not citizens of the United States, from equiring or holding lots or parce s of and in any incorporated or platted city, town or village, or in any mine or mining claim in any of the Territories of the United States. . . . or from acquiring lands or any interest therein by inheritance or in the ordinary cou.se same upon real estate or any interest therein.' I have not been able to discover anything which excepts subjects of the hinese Empire from the operation of the foregoing statutes. The Burlingame treaty of 1.63 between the United abrogated, although the most libera; reaty that china has ever had with the United States provides that "nothing herein contained shall be held to onfer naturalization . . . upon the subjects of China in the United States."
